

Activating Electronic Access to the Journal of Great Lakes Research

Online subscriptions to the Journal of Great Lakes Research archives are included with your International Association for Great Lakes Research membership and can be accessed via ScienceDirect. If you are a current* IAGLR member, please note the following instructions carefully:

1) First, activate your IAGLR "member ID #" with Elsevier:

<https://www.sciencedirect.com/jglr/activate/member>

You will be asked to fill out a profile form and choose a password. Elsevier will assign your unique username.

2) After registration in step 1, login via this URL page ONLY (Athens Login upper right hand corner)

<http://www.sciencedirect.com/jglr>

This link is also featured on the IAGLR website: Journal tab, "Access Journal – members"

Once you log in, the Elsevier menu bar will show a variety of functions. Hit the BROWSE button to view the JGLR archives free of charge. If you attempt to sign in in any other ScienceDirect area, you will be recognized as a "guest" and prompted to purchase articles.

If you encounter problems, please note FAQ:

- Your IAGLR username/password for use within the IAGLR Membersweb area will NOT be recognized by the Elsevier JGLR database. Be sure you have completed Elsevier registration step 1 before browsing in step 2.
- Authors and Reviewers: your EES username/password is different from the Elsevier Member registry for Journal archive access. All members must activate their IAGLR membership account – in Step 1.
- older browsers may not support SSL encryption, which is required for secure data transmission
- cookies must be enabled in your browser to support the registration process
- the username and password are both case sensitive

Should you require any assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the IAGLR Business Office office@iaglr.org or the closest Elsevier support Department below. Please mention the Journal of Great Lakes Research, the URL of the site and our association's name in your communication.
